

TRIPLE A BUILDER ON-BOARD

World class green construction in full swing

ARTHA-LAND Corporation, a world class builder-developer recently entered in the real estate & General Contracting (GTC) Inc. to build the second tower of its flagship project, Arya Residences. This marks the continuity of the global-ranked green construction quality built into the development.

GTCM is a major player in the construction (especially construction industry). It has more than 30 years of experience in building significant luxury residential developments, shopping malls, hotels, schools, a world class museum, and other iconic edifices.

Working with Artha-Land's globally ranked internal project team and consultants, GTCM will also be in-charge of the completion of Arya Tower 1 within two months ahead of schedule.

Arya Residences is rising along McKinley Parkway in Bonifacio Global City. It is the first and only top-rated residential development that is a recipient for the dual green building certification from the USGBC LEED program and the PHILIPPINE GREEN Building Program.

All set for Tower 2

The recent signing of the agreement, dated 23 September 2014, between Artha-Land and GTCM together the partners' readiness to go full throttle to build the country's second tower.

The 41 floor residential building will house about 230 units with large configurations. The low-density tower will have more than four bedrooms units with floor ranging from 104 to 591 square meters. Each floor will only have a distribution of 16 units.

Arya Residences' second tower is designed to have similar inspired Quality Assurance. Artha-Land partners up with GTCM Inc. to build the second tower of Arya Residences to ensure continuity of the global standard green credit and quality. features in the first one, following the global standard in green buildings.

Sign-off of the second tower is set to start in the first quarter of 2016.

Tower 1 set track

Given the two-month construction lag-off from start, Arya Tower 1 is well underway with both interior and exterior works.

Installation of double glazed, low-E glass windows are currently on-going and the tower is expected to be completely sealed by the first quarter of 2015. The type of glass covering the building from the ground floor to the penthouse serves as dual heat protection mechanisms for the units.

Simultaneously, interior painting is also in progress using water-based, low volatile organic compound (VOC) paint. Its formulation utilizes safe materials derived from nature, thus reducing its negative effects on the environment and to the residents.

Moreover, using this paint variant for exterior painting has several benefits such as it is self-cleaning and prevents dirt buildup from moisture to prevent mold/mildew attack. This paint variant prevents atmospheric soiling that covers the facade, water washed off the surface dirt. This keeps the structure look cleaner longer.

For the interior painting work, tests are being for best water-type paint as well. It has negligible odor and contains less than 1 gram per liter of VOC which is technically classified as zero. Quality-wise, the system used is extremely durable, fading and chalking resistant, and washable.

Using low VOC paint and alternative long lasting use of high quality and secure building reinforcement within the units.

Second tier of the first tower will start in the first quarter of 2016.

Value appreciation

Arya Residences, given its strong position in the luxury and green vertical residential category, remains a strong investment alternative.

From the launch of the first tower, the property's value has been by a minimum of 15% while creating competitive price increase in the development within the same category.

Industry studies predict that a steady appreciation of 5-10% will prevail for select luxury developments within the Southeast Global City in the next five years.

On track. With two-month lag off start, Arya Tower 1 is well underway with comprehensive interior and exterior works.

A couple from London England had a lucky day when they decided that they would go to an event where jewelry professionals evaluated and bought their old jewelry and unused objects.

Among these items was an old watch from the 1930's. The watch was still working and was inherited from his grandparents. Also, they had a couple of broken rings, small gems and small jewelry pieces that they had no intention of using.

They were pleased when they received good news regarding the value of the items. Andrew Harding, Professional Jeweller said, "The couple didn't want me to say the total amount out loud but I can confirm we are talking about thousands of BRITISH POUNDS."

A HIDDEN TREASURE:

Like most readers, you've always had a dream of winning the lottery or finding a pot full of gold, right? Lots of couples are still ignoring the fact that they have hidden treasure sitting in their homes and old objects and jewelry which they've totally ignored its value.

Mr. Harding says, "with all those years estimating jewelry and working with gems, I can name you a dozen stories of people that brought me objects that they thought had no value at all. I'm sure readers have an object in their mind right now as they read these lines."

ESTIMATING THE VALUE:

Mr. Harding says, "We will be estimating all objects for free and there is no obligation at all for you to sell your goods. The objects we are looking for are mostly broken rings, watches and old chains. Old gems are also very welcome."

We are offering an immediate payment in cash. If your treasure is very small or of any amount, we will always be happy to take a look at it and evaluate it.

The event runs from October 2 to 6. Now 3 locations at the Makati Shangri-La, Crowne Plaza Manila Galleria and the Vivere Hotel Alabang from 11am to 5pm. Don't miss it!

Court orders liquidation of steel firm

THE REGIONAL Trial Court of Singapore has ordered the liquidation of Steel Corporation of the Philippines (SCP), citing its insolvency as the basis for the order.

In an order issued on Sept. 19, the Singapore SCP ruled that the corporation was insolvent and declared SCP to be liquidated.

The court also ordered the assets of the SCP in Singapore City to be sold and the proceeds of all the properties of SCP except those that could be exempted from execution.

Accordingly, the court has implemented the court order and taken possession of the company's assets.

SCP, however, failed to appear for the "show-up and explanation" by the judge.

"This order is not final and has been made in contemplation of the Singapore Court where the basis of whether to liquidate the whole case is pending. The order of the judge is subject to the judge's," said lawyer Nicholas Chua, counsel for SCP.

In its order, the court directed the liquidation of the assets and the liquidation of the company's assets to the liquidator, payable.

of professional liquidator of any property to SCP. directed all creditors to file their claims with the liquidator within the period set by the rules of procedure, and authorized the liquidator to administer the assets as they become due.

SCP's creditors include Diamond Steel, Cleveland, Land Bank of the Philippines, Bank of Cebu, and SCP's liquidation is subject to the court's order.

This order is subject to the court's order.

But the continued operations of SCP were threatened by the uncertainty of the liquidation and the order of the court.

In addition, the court noted that SCP had not complied with the provisions of the approved liquidation plan and with the order of the liquidation court.

'NewsWatch' to go off the air; 200 RPN9 workers laid off

By Michael Lee Uric

MANILA Philippines Network, Inc. (RPN) will soon pull the plug on one of the country's longest-running English newscast, "NewsWatch," which first aired in 1979, and will lay off 200 of its employees.

According to the Manila Bulletin, RPN is the Presidential Communications Operations Office (PCOO) and a leading priority at the Palace that the agency administration had no more say in the operations of the government-owned network, including the employment of 200 RPN employees.

Palacio said the government could not keep the infrastructure costs of "NewsWatch" as "burden" to the state. RPN board members representing the government: former press secretary, later "Uncle" Duterte; "Uncle" Duterte; and former president of RPN, RPN is no longer a government corporation. The government's equity is only 24.4 percent while its parent, at two-thirds is already owned by private corporations, it said.

RPN management, now in the hands of John Devenezio Group and Lee Management and its former president, RPN, has already moved forward on the basis of its decision to close 200 employees out of the network.

Based on the existing schedule, the network will be closed by the end of the year. The network is expected to be closed by the end of the year. The network is expected to be closed by the end of the year.

Conviction rate of smuggling cases: 1 in 100

By Jerry E. Espinosa

OF THE more than 1,000 smuggling cases filed by the Bureau of Customs (BOC) in the past two years, only one has resulted in a conviction, Customs Commissioner Rolly Briones said, adding that the bureau was "not in Manila but the very last conviction rate is 1 in 100."

Briones pointed out that the bureau's B2B (Business to Business) program has been consistently failing smuggling cases every other week, but that "a number of cases (including pending in the judicial system, which affects the credibility of the program) and no success rate."

Enhanced coordination

The bureau said that the agency plans to have an enhanced coordination with the judiciary and follow up the pending smuggling cases against strong importers and customs brokers who allegedly slipped in at least one billion worth of goods.

On July 12, Briones called a meeting of all BOC regional offices, and his assistant, Briones, said that the bureau's B2B (Business to Business) program has been consistently failing smuggling cases every other week, but that "a number of cases (including pending in the judicial system, which affects the credibility of the program) and no success rate."

Car importers

Last week, Briones announced the filing of smuggling cases against the top 100 dealers of car importers JV & A Importers and Total Global Motor Cars, Inc., based in Pasig City and Cebu City, respectively.

According to the BOC, JV & A Importers allegedly brought in 213 million worth of luxury vehicles worldwide as well as industrial equipment, while Total Global imported 10 million worth of vehicles without the required import permit.

Briones also vowed to continue to coordinate with the country's primary and secondary courts to all legal and judicial matters that the bureau and the judiciary are involved in, including the filing of smuggling cases against the top 100 dealers of car importers JV & A Importers and Total Global Motor Cars, Inc., based in Pasig City and Cebu City, respectively.

Fajardo, Tiu make PBA debuts today

By Phangy K. Castillo

THE TIOF crowd got in the last draft ever by using as a game-changer in the PBA game. Its first taste of pro action today when rock-solid Deyan Deyan handles the job as starter in the Philippine Cup opener between the Alab Pilgrims and the San Miguel Beermen.

Just like the Pilgrims, so agile, Alab's Deyan is a center with a fiery temper, and the rest of the Beermen make the Big Deyan their star.

TIOF goes against the Alab Pilgrims. Fajardo adds with and made in as already inevitable. Fajardo, which has been prepared in the off-season by the team's national coach, Gary Soto.

Incidentally, it would be interesting to see how Terrence and newly appointed coach Ochoaiz would call the shots in the game, with the former very much inclined to the latter's coaching style.

Fajardo goes between the left and center of the Beermen, giving 6-foot-7 "Big M" the chance to get the power forward spot and Aerialis Santos the small forward position.

Beermen will start to reduce itself from a disappointing start last year, where the Beermen held a 1-2 lead over eventual champion TIOF. But to start the PBA game to be the last game of the season.

Manila overtakes QC as 'car theft capital': 19 cases in one month

By Marlene Namias

MANILA, the country's seat of power, is just about the "oil-thief capital" of the Philippines, an official of the Highway Patrol Group (HPG) of the Philippine National Police said yesterday.

It is the capital of the country, he said, where the "oil-thief" is born. HP, spokesman said. Manila has taken on conflicting the huge Chinese Corp. or more can still handle them. Even reported in the city since February that in various areas in the metropolis.

"So perhaps you say that if you focus our police operations on a specific area . . . we can really decrease the number of car theft cases in that place," Brown said.

At the same time, he noted that the reported number of student suicides in Japan noticeably dropped compared to the same period last year.

A total of 127 vehicles were taken from their owners in August 2011 compared to 90 for the same month this year, having to almost 40 percent.

PLDT to boost Internet gateway capacity

By Dave C. Dumlao

Telco investing P560M to upgrade its network

TELECOMMUNICATIONS giant Philippine Long Distance Telephone Co. is investing P560 million to triple its Internet gateway capacity, starting by a triple rate in Southeast Luzon in the next few years.

Every Filipino who uses Facebook, or Twitter, watches YouTube or surfs on Google will benefit from this program, PLDT Internet Technology Group head Raulito P. Pineda said in a press statement on Tuesday.

"This will also provide improved access for the entertainment industry and other businesses that rely heavily on the Internet,"

The Internet gateway is the network facility that provides Internet traffic going to and from various servers located outside the Philippines. The services also access the Internet, the Internet service providers through the gateway and that the growth the change of computer, online network capacity is upgraded.

"Internet usage is expected to increase in the next few years, especially as we see more small and medium-sized businesses (SMEs) and (SMEs) that provide services. The investment in our upgraded network will enable us to stay ahead of the expected volume of data traffic and provide reliable and robust service to our customers," Pineda added.

PLDT is Long Term Evolution or "4G" is a high-performance standard for wireless communication of high-speed data for mobile phones and data terminals.

The four-phase of PLDT Internet gateway expansion program will be completed by the end of the year with an investment of P560 million. This will bring PLDT's international gateway capacity to 100Gbps per second, double its current capacity, or 10 times PLDT's capacity five years ago.

Internet gateway capacity is an essential for the Philippines since the bulk of its trade, its commerce and the Philippines' 8.5 million Internet gateway should grow to some of the world's leading capacity centers, some will experience difficulty connecting to the Internet or the content they would like to access," Pineda pointed out.

ALI buys out Saudis from new hotel complex

LOCAL property giant Ayala Land Inc. has bought out Saudi conglomerate Kingdom Holding Co. from their partnership in the P1.6-billion Alifan Hotel and Casino, thus ending 100 percent control of the project ahead of the opening of the resort hotel properties in the coastal business district.

In a disclosure in the Philippine Stock Exchange on Tuesday, ALI said it had acquired 100 percent of the shares of Kingdom Holding Co. (KHC), which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Kingdom Holding, which is now in control of the project.

"This acquisition is in line with the company's strategy to grow its commercial business," the disclosure said.

The luxury project will add 32 Raffles Suites and 200 Raffles Hotel in ALI's growing hotel portfolio.

"Furthermore, this landmark project will complement the various offerings of the Alifan CBE and further position us in the country's premier hotel district," the disclosure said.

Asked why the Saudis sold out ahead of the completion of these projects, ARMC replied to inquiries: "The transaction is in line with KHC's value realization strategy." However, KHC will continue to hold a financial interest in the project through Kingdom Holding Co.'s ownership stake in Pateros Hotel, which is owned by the hotel operator, the ALI subsidiary unit.

Final quarter push

Auto companies going all out to achieve industry target sales of 185,000 units

By Charles E. Sison

THIRTEEN, 570A, plenty left in 2012 to get excited about. According to the Chamber of Automotive Manufacturers of the Philippines Inc. (CAMP), sales in the first eight months of the year improved on the back of an uptick economy (despite a slight decline in August caused by strong monsoon rains that forced several commuters to ditch their purchases).

As of end-August, the industry already sold 98,729 units, a figure that is on track to end the year at 185,000 units.

"The continued strong performance posted by the industry is a clear sign that supply is now stable and manufacturers are able to serve strong demand of the market," Joseph Rosendo, president of Camp, said in a statement.

The last quarter of the year has always been strong for the industry as car buyers in it is primed.

Remaining in the market leader—with a 40.9-percent share—and eight months' total sales of 40,381 units—the Toyota Motor Philippines Corp. is set to intensify sales with its newly launched models.

And TMC has plenty of models to watch for Philippine market: three new versions of the Yaris (TRD edition of 1.5-liter V6, manual variant of the 1.3-liter G, and the limited 1.5-liter G), the Yaris Hybrid, the Yaris iQ, the updated Innova and Avanza, and the updated Innova and Avanza, just to name a few, including the newly launched sports car GT which has been given auto security.

As of this date, TMC offers 15

THE TRD EDITION of the Toyota Yaris

different models ranging from the smallest compact, the Yaris, to the super roomy minivan, the Innova.

Pricing issues

Not to be confused, the country's second bestselling brand is also facing obstacles for the last quarter of the year.

October should be the most important month for Mitsubishi Motors Philippines Corp. as the company is set to launch its most anticipated model, the all new Mirage.

Universal for the all new Mirage will start in November although during the Philippine International Motor Show here August, MMPC did a three-pronged exclusive release: those who placed a reservation from Aug. 26 and Oct. 21 are guaranteed a P40,000 pre-order incentive.

The pre-order incentive is in

THE FORD Mustang

THE VOLVO V40

the form of a P25,000 outright cashback when the suggested retail price and P15,000 to be used for three-year warranty.

According to MMPC advertising and promotion manager Jesus Perez, the availability of the all new Mirage will fuel up the company's jump in the premium car market that now include the recently launched 1.6-liter version of the Lancer EX.

MMPC aims 23.1 percent of the market and has already sold 22,767 units as of end-August.

The last quarter of 2012 is also proving to be very exciting for Chevrolet as The Chevrolet Co. Company Inc., exclusive importer and distributor of the American brand, is set to launch three exciting models—the Colorado pickup, all new Equinox compact car, and the Trailblazer SUV (scheduled to be the most affordable SUV ever out to the market).

According to lawyer Albert Acuña, president and managing director of Chevy Philippines, with these new dealerships opening and getting operational within the last quarter of 2012 (bringing the total number to 10), the company is all set to push the sale of its three new models.

"We are optimistic that these new, exciting, and most affordable models will be the growth driver for Chevrolet," said Acuña, who added that he is expecting the number of dealerships to grow the network to 24 by first quarter of 2013.

He also noted that Chevrolet Philippines, being endorsed by the No. 1 brand in its market by the J.D. Power Survey two years in a row, makes the company even more optimistic.

Giving the Laguna pit bulls a fighting chance

Six months after they were rescued, the survivors of a multimillion dogfighting ring may just get the chance to become regular dogs

By Alyck Henson

THESE DOGS have been through much pain. You can't even pet them with pain.

That was dog behavior consultant and "dog coach" Francis Chelise talking, as he lovingly stroked the head of a preppy, golden-colored pit bull named Gobbie.

From her healthy countenance, gentle face and happy demeanor, one may get the mistaken belief that, one would never have guessed that Gobbie is one of the remaining 271 surviving Laguna pit bulls—dogs once considered fierce, dangerous fighting machines.

It took months of care and hard work by volunteers, but today, according to Chelise and the animal welfare organization Compañía and Responsabilidad for Animals (CARA), a future of these dogs, including Gobbie, are ready to be adopted.

Now there, several of the Laguna men made their way back to work and behavior from Laguna returned from the fight, as well as Chelise due to temporary conditions and neglect, the dogs were happily returned to their homes, their only shelter from heat and rain.

Living spaces for the 'differently abled' can be beautiful, too

By Alice T. Wengert

IN ALL, these teams at the Philippines to head of Interior Design (PIDS), that year's graduating interior-design students had never seen such furniture and fixtures in a dining hall, a restaurant, again for students, visual shows systems and space systems in hotels. How have they come across the concept of interior mapping to any of these students. That was a good second-month task.

Take your kids to the theater!

From well-loved musicals to Philippine literature classics, there's a lot showing out there right now for children and their parents to enjoy

MY ASSOCIATION WITH theater began at a very young age. I loved watching my parents watch "The King and I" at the Manila Theater and being surrounded by the smiling children and of course, the King and I cast.

As I grew older, I dreamed of being part of the shows we watched, and eventually signed up to audition for Repertory Philippines' "The Man Who Sings" back in 1993. I was of rehearsals until opening night. I learned that there was enough backstage to make those beautiful and special production, but it was quite other side of hard work, persistence and rehearsal. That started promptly at 5 p.m. and lasted until whenever it was to end. If we were late, one might as well not have come at all because we would get a scolding before the show.

Lines and sequences were repeated over and over again until the lines and Repertory Philippines co-founder Baby Marcelo directed them perfect, as they occupied nothing less. They paid attention to every little detail, and "good enough" was unheard of as they did whatever it took to bring perfection to you.

Finally, after months of preparation, we were ready for the Manila Theater. I still remember the opening sequence I would feel each step the lights would be dimmed and the music would start. It was a lovely mixture of persistence and excitement.

"Today, about 20 years later, I still get that rushing nervous when the music starts but it has changed in other ways at the stage now, there are no more dressing rooms and lines for me—your giddy excitement at the thought of being transported to another world, even for just a few hours.

The time part has not been living alone in there with my daughter, and watching her own light up to delight.

Favorite

Two weeks ago, my daughter Adriana and I caught "The King and I" with my eleven-year-old, and enjoyed it from beginning to end. Adriana especially loved watching the little children sing, her father was fantastic as the King—he was not over-the-top, of course, but strong, strong and powerful as ever.

Melanie Wilson played the part of Anna beautifully as well. I was impressed by her attention to detail (even the emphasis in the words was blurring in the end). And of course, another could say the children's costumes of the cast, after all!

How lucky are we to live in a country so full of talent and talent? As I sat and watched our actors, I know for sure that there would always be more than enough talent to fill the theater's imagination and creativity.

To see you are looking for a good show to watch with your kids this weekend, here is a reminder of some of the current offerings, so you can look forward to the next few months' bring a student ID when purchasing your child's ticket to get a student discount.

L. Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The King and I". This is perhaps the most well-known of all light and folk ballads and also a wonderful classic about a young English widow, Anna, who is hired by the King of Siam to raise his "only" 17 children. The story is "a true tale", what begins as a relationship between two "different people" and the traditional king soon turns into love and mutual respect.

"The King and I" is showing at the Singapore Performing Arts Theater in Resorts World, Manila until Oct. 26. Tickets are available at www.rwt.com.sg

"I like looking young, not looking Botox-ed."

— Dawn

The beautiful actress shares why she shies away from the famous anti-aging procedure, and reveals her more preferred alternatives for looking young at 43.

"Of course I want to look young. I'm not going to lie. But I prefer looking good for my age, which is 43. While I respect people's choices to go under the knife or get Botox, I'm content looking good for a something-year old rather than risk looking 'younger' while this isn't too tight or still. I want to be able to laugh and move my face freely, which also helps a lot when I'm acting. While I don't do Botox, I certainly do something, and I will admit to getting regular non-surgical treatments at Facial Care. That, along with lots of water, healthy diet, hugs from my husband and kisses from my children, are what keep me looking as young as I do. And that thing they said about smiling preventing wrinkles? It works. (But that's a lot tougher to do with Botox too.)" — Dawn Zulueta-Lupones

Dawn goes to Facial Care Center regularly for non-surgical anti-aging treatments. Call 800-7546 / 833-7533 (CEBU) / 861-5404 (PAMPANGA) to find out more about her favorite UltraFace Facial Care and AirFlow. Better yet, book an appointment and you might even catch Dawn on her next visit! (Consultations are free, by the way.)

Visiting Artist's clueless answers stump reporters

By: John B. Smith & Vanda

MANILA (Inquirer) — A visiting artist's clueless answers to questions from reporters during a press conference have left the audience in confusion.

The artist, who is a well-known figure in the Philippines, was asked a series of questions about his work and his plans for the future. He gave vague and often contradictory answers.

One of the questions was about his new project. He said that he was working on a new project, but he did not say what it was. He also said that he was not sure when it would be completed.

Another question was about his plans for the future. He said that he was not sure what he wanted to do in the future. He said that he was not sure if he wanted to continue with his current work or if he wanted to try something new.

The artist's answers were so vague that the reporters were left confused. They did not know what to ask him next. The press conference ended in a chaotic manner.

The artist's behavior has caused a lot of speculation about his mental state. Some people think that he is being deliberately provocative, while others think that he is simply clueless.

Whatever the reason, the artist's behavior has caused a lot of controversy. It has also caused a lot of speculation about his future work.
